November 2019

The Montegrappa Aviator enters stealth mode with a special, all-black finish. Now our popular Professions pen comes in two colours: offering double the options and twice the style to those who love to fly. The Aviator All-Black Flying Ace Edition is available for a limited period only.

Montegrappa's Aviator takes flight again, this time with a whole new look. Brushed black aluminium and black PVD steel trims carry the Aviator All-Black Flying Ace to new heights, combining performance sport styling with a touch of executive discretion.

- Back in black. Anodised finishing and colour coated-steel bring a sleek, modern look to Aviator's distinctive bullet-nose cap, tapered barrel and aeronautical appointments.
- Aviator is an obvious choice wherever flight is front of mind: from cockpit to C-suite, flight school to first class, industry convention to in-flight retail.
- Delightful fuselage design and a long list of discoverable details make Aviator a conversation-starter of the highest calibre.

- A special, surprise upgrade arrives for the Montegrappa Aviator. All-black finishing borrows a popular technique from the worlds of watchmaking and jewellery.
- A presentation case styled on vintage flying goggles serves as a bonus sunglass case for travellers.
- New colouring makes it possible to add company logos with sharper definition and higher contrast.
- Montegrappa's Professions is a product family that also includes themed pens for members of the legal, medical, hospitality and teaching professions.
