

SIGNET SERIES
Leather Goods

As a symbol used to identify creations of exceptional detail, our Ambigram emblem hints at infinite possibilities. Writing aficionados recognise our signet as a guarantor of craftsmanship, individual expression and flourishes that transcend conventional expectations.

More than a century of experience informs our writing instruments... a reason that this collection represents a starting point. Selecting the very best leathers, we choose to master the essentials and hone our craft. The result is a family of original, all-Italian leather designs, considered and crafted in every detail. Our signet is our word.
